

SIX FLAGS NEW ENGLAND
SUBJECT: EXPLOSIONS	EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROCEDURES
SECTION: 24	PAGE: 1 of 2
EFFECTIVE: JANUARY 2016	SUPERSEDES: ALL PREVIOUS

EXPLOSIONS

PURPOSE

Threats and Considerations

- . Numerous injuries, major and minor
- . Fires
- . Panic
- . Major fire department response
- . Second explosion
- . Trapped guests and employees
- . Structural failure
- . Major media response
- . Mass injuries from families of guest and employees
- . Area or park evacuation

POLICY

- Operations base will initiate emergency management notification, and prepare for crowd control problems at Guest Relations.
- Operations Base will put a Signal 99 into effect.
- Safety/Security Manager will determine the need for the notification of outside resources.

PROCEDURE

- Safety/Security Manager will respond to scene and ensure the following:
 - A. Evaluate further potential threats to guests and park property.
 - B. Initiate area or park evacuation as needed.
 - C. Evaluate threats from live utilities.
 - D. Coordinate park resources in evacuation and crowd control.
- Senior Security Supervisor will respond to scene to:
 - A. Direct escort of responding emergency services.
 - B. Coordinate evacuation of area and establish parameter.
 - C. Coordinate assistance Medical Services.

SIX FLAGS NEW ENGLAND
SUBJECT: EXPLOSIONS	EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROCEDURES
SECTION: 24	PAGE: 2 of 2
EFFECTIVE: JANUARY 2016	SUPERSEDES: ALL PREVIOUS

- If needed, Medical Services staff will respond to incident location with the park ambulance vehicle to provide initial first aid.
- Maintenance Department Duty Manager to respond to the scene to:
 - A. Evaluate property damage
 - B. Assist in evacuation
 - C. Determine utility shutdown as needed.
 - D. Secure or neutralize any immediate physical threats.
- Operations Department Duty Manager to respond to scene to:
 - A. Coordinate Operations personnel.
 - B. Assist in evacuation.
 - C. Crowd control.
- Food Service Department Duty Manager is to respond to scene and assist Duty Manager in information gathering and accident documentation. They are to coordinate Food Service Supervision in assisting in evacuating and crowd control.
- Retail Department Duty Manager is to respond to scene and coordinate Merchandise Supervision in assisting in evacuation and crowd control.
- Games Department Duty Manager is to respond to ECC room and assist with notifications and documentation. They are also to assist with media.
- Upon arrival of emergency services, respective supervision of said services shall be contacted ASAP for coordination with Six Flags New England operations.
- Once initial emergency first aid services are completed, the incident area is to be secured with a primary border directly around the area involved, and a secondary border a known safe distance from the primary area.
- Primary area shall remain sealed until released by a representative of Agawam Police Department. All information and documentation regarding the incident shall be compiled and secured, and then passed on the Safety/Security Manager.